Am I a Helpmeet Wife?
Am I a Headship Husband?

Am I a helpmeet wife? We have to be Christ-led to be able to apply our God-given positions in marriage. Without Christ leading our lives we are NOTHING! We become too selfish otherwise. I have been (Thanks be to God) a Christ-led woman since 1994 and I still to this day find myself behaving selfishly in my marriage! The realization of when I am behaving improperly is a good thing which puts me back in-line with following God rather than leading.

We have to stay on our watch; we have to test what is true; and we have to be discerning; lest we do these things we'll veer off track and be less than helpful to our husbands and marriage.

It is my belief that marriages disintegrate because there is no foundation holding up the marriage. Saying we are Christians is not enough! We must be Christ-ones. We must be the children of God that is outlined in His Word. We must do what it says and we must live a life that is led by Christ. We can never truly be the man or woman that God asks us to be until we step down off the pedestal and put God on the pedestal where He belongs!

Read the articles below together then pray about your role as husband or wife. What is Christ asking you to do? Apply what they say into your marriage. Strive to be the man or woman (husband and wife) that God wants you to be.
